- c. An LLC may not transact business or incur indebtedness, except that which is incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscriptions for or payment of contributions, until the Articles of Organization have been filed with the Department. Persons engaged in pre-filing activities other than those authorized by this section shall be jointly and severally liable for any debts or liabilities incurred in the course of those activities. The execution of any certificate or articles shall contain an oath or affirmation by the person executing the document under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated in the articles or certificate are true and that any power of attorney used in connection with the execution of the articles or certificate is proper in form and substance.

5.17. Execution by Judicial Act. If a person required by subsection (a) to execute articles or a certificate fails or refuses to do so, then a person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal of any person to execute and file any articles or other document required to be filed under this Ordinance may petition the Tribal Court solely for the purpose of requesting an order that directs the execution and filing of the articles or other document. Review by the Tribal Court shall be limited to a determination of whether the articles or document comply with the requirements for the articles and document set forth in this Ordinance. Nothing in this Ordinance, however, serves to waive any aspect of the Tribe's sovereign immunity, and any waiver thereof must be provided explicitly in the LLC's Articles of Organization and/or Operating Agreement. Nothing in this Ordinance authorizes lawsuits against the Department for damages or any relief other than the order described in this section. On an action under this Section, if the Tribal Court finds that the certificate or articles should be executed and that the person or persons designated to execute the certificate or articles have failed or refused to do so, the Tribal Court shall order the Department to record the appropriate certificate or articles. Exclusive venue for an action under this section lies in the Tribal Court.

5.18. Penalty for False Execution.

- a. If any articles or certificate contain a materially inaccurate statement, a person who suffers loss by reasonable reliance on the statement may recover damages for the loss from:
  1. A manager or member who executed the certificate or articles and knew or should have known the statement was inaccurate in a material respect at the time the certificate or articles were executed; and
  2. A manager or, if none, any member who thereafter knows that an arrangement or other fact described in the certificate or articles is inaccurate in any material respect or has changed, making the statement inaccurate in any material respect, if that manager or member had sufficient time to amend or cancel the certificate or articles or to file a petition for the amendment or cancellation before the statement was reasonably relied upon.
- b. Notwithstanding subsection (a), a manager or member has no liability for failing to cause the amendment or cancellation of a certificate or articles to be filed or failing to file a petition for amendment or cancellation pursuant to subsection (a) if the articles or amendment, articles of dissolution or petition is filed within 90 days of the date that manager or member knew or should have known the certificate or articles were inaccurate in any material respect.

5.19. Certificate of Status. Any person may obtain from the Department, upon request, a certificate of status for either a Domestic or a Foreign LLC.

5.20. Interstate Application and Application in Other Foreign Jurisdictions. An LLC may conduct its business, carry on its operations and have and exercise the powers granted by this Ordinance in any foreign jurisdiction, including but not limited to, any jurisdiction of an Indian tribe, any foreign nation, and any state, territory, district or possession of the United States.

5.21. Tribe as Owner.

- a. The Tribe shall form or become a member of a Tribally-owned LLC formed under this Ordinance only by resolution of the Tribal Council, upon a finding that the tribally-owned business and the services/opportunities/income that it may provide are integral to the operations, financial health, economic self-sufficiency, and continued existence of the tribe.
- b. If the Tribe or a Tribal entity is a member of an LLC formed under this Ordinance, any action which the Tribe is required or permitted to take with respect to any vote, approval, consent, appointment, direction, or other matter shall be taken as specified in §16.03 of this Ordinance or, as to actions related to the managers of a manager-managed LLC, as stated in the LLC's Operating Agreement approved by the Tribal Council.
- c. If the Tribe is the sole member of an LLC formed under this Ordinance, such Tribally-owned LLC shall possess all of the privileges and immunities of the Tribe, including the Tribe's sovereign immunity from suit except to the extent otherwise provided in its Operating Agreement approved by the Tribal Council.
- d. If a Tribally-owned LLC, of which the Tribe or a Tribal entity is the sole member, forms a Tribally-owned subsidiary LLC of which the Tribally-owned LLC is the sole member, such Tribally-owned subsidiary LLC shall possess all of the privileges and immunities of the Tribe, including the Tribe's sovereign immunity from suit except to the extent otherwise provided in its Operating Agreement.
- e. If a subsidiary Tribally-owned LLC of which a Tribally-owned LLC is the sole member, forms a Tribally-owned second-tier subsidiary LLC, such Tribally-owned second-tier subsidiary LLC shall possess all of the privileges and immunities of the Tribe, including the Tribe's sovereign immunity from suit except to the extent otherwise provided in its Operating Agreement.
- f. If the Tribe or a Tribal entity is a member with a majority interest in an LLC formed under this Ordinance, the LLC may possess the privileges and immunities of the Tribe, including sovereign immunity from suit, to the extent allowed by federal law, this Ordinance or by its Operating Agreement approved by Tribal Council.
- g. In no event shall any manager, who is not a member of an LLC in which the Tribe is a Member, bind the Tribe in any manner; provided that the Tribe's interest as a member may be bound only by manager or member actions consistent with this Ordinance and the Operating Agreement of the LLC.
- h. Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed as creating any liability or waiving of sovereign immunity of the Tribe in any manner; provided that the assets of the LLC in which the Tribe holds an interest may be subject to liabilities and claims unless otherwise provided herein. In no event shall any action taken by the Tribe as a member concerning the exercise of any right or privilege or discharge of any duty with respect to an interest in an LLC be construed as a waiver of immunity or creation of a liability on the part of the Tribe separate and apart from its interests as a member of the LLC.
- i. For all Tribally-owned LLCs and Tribally-owned subsidiary LLCs, the additional provisions of Articles 15, 16 and 17 of this Ordinance shall apply.

6.01. *Agency Power of Members and Managers.

- a. Except as provided in subsection (b):
  - 1. Each member is an agent of an LLC for the purpose of its business or affairs, and the acts of a Member, including, but not limited to, the execution in the name of an LLC of an instrument for carrying on the business or affairs of that LLC of which that person is a member binds an LLC, unless the acting Member has no authority to act for the LLC in a particular matter, and the person with whom that member is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the member has no such authority.
  - 2. If the Tribe is a member, the Tribe's authority shall be exercised pursuant to Article 16.
- b. If the Articles of Organization provide that management of an LLC is vested in a manager or managers:
  - 1. A member, acting solely in the capacity as a member, is not an agent of an LLC; and
  - 2. Each manager is an agent of an LLC for the purpose of its business or affairs, and the act of a manager, including, but not limited to, the execution in the name of that LLC of an instrument, for carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of that LLC of which that person is the manager, binds that LLC, unless the acting manager has no authority to act for the LLC in a particular matter and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the manager has no such authority.
- c. An act of a manager or a member that is not apparently for carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of an LLC does not bind that LLC unless authorized in accordance with an Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization at the time of the transaction or at any other time.
- d. An act of a manager or member in contravention of a restriction on authority does not bind an LLC to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

6.02. *Admissions of Members and Managers.

6.03. Limited Liability Company Charged with Knowledge of or Notice to Member or Manager.

- a. Except as provided in subsection (b), notice to a member of a matter relating to the business or affairs of an LLC, and the knowledge of the member acting in the particular matter, acquired while a member or known by the person at the time of becoming a member, and the knowledge of any other member who reasonably could and should have communicated the knowledge to the acting member, operate as notice to or knowledge of the LLC, except in the case of a fraud on the LLC committed by or with the consent of that member.
- b. If the Articles of Organization provide that management of an LLC is vested in a manager or managers:
  1. 6.05. Liability to Third Parties.

- a. Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, the debts, obligations and liabilities of an LLC, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, are solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the LLC. A member or manager of an LLC is not obligated personally for

- b. Except as provided in subsection (c), the failure of an LLC to observe the usual LLC formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of LLC powers or management of its business and affairs is not a ground for imposing personal liability on the members or managers for liabilities of the LLC.
  - c. Except as otherwise provide in this ordinance, all or specified members of an LLC may be liable in their capacity as members for all or specified debts, obligations or liabilities of the LLC only if:
    - 1. A statement to that effect is contained in the Articles of Organization; and
    - 2. Any member so liable has either voted for the adoption of the provision or has consented in writing to be bound by the provision.
  - d. A member of an LLC may act as guarantor or surety, may provide collateral or may otherwise assume responsibility for the debts, obligations or liabilities of the LLC whether or not a statement under paragraph (c) (1) exists or a vote or consent under paragraph (c) (2) has occurred.
- 6.06. Parties to Actions. A member of an LLC is not a proper party to a proceeding by or against that LLC, solely by reason of being a member of that LLC, except:

  - b. The action is brought under § 6.07.
- 6.07. Authority to Sue. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, an action on behalf of an LLC may be brought in the name of the LLC by:

Article 7. Rights and Duties of Members and Managers.

7.01. *Management; Voting; Classes.

- a. Unless the Articles of Organization provide that management of an LLC vests in a manager or managers, management of the business or affairs of that LLC is vested in the members. 3. Unless they have been earlier removed or have earlier resigned, shall hold office until their successors have been elected and qualified.
- e. An Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization may provide for classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as the Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization may provide, and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization of additional classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of managers. An Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization, without the vote or approval of any manager or class or group of managers, including an action to create under the provisions of the Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization a class or group of LLC interests that was not previously outstanding.
- f. An Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization may grant to all or certain identified managers or a specified class or group of the managers the right to vote, separately or with all or any class or group of managers or members, on any matters. 7.02. Duties of Managers and Members.

- a. All members and managers shall have and owe fiduciary duties to the LLC and the members.
- b. No member or manager shall act in a manner that constitutes any of the following:

  2. A violation of criminal law involving moral turpitude;
  3. A transaction from which the member or manager derived an improper personal profit; or

- d. The managers and members of an LLC shall exercise their powers and discharge their duties in good faith and in a manner that such manager or member reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the LLC and shall discharge their duties with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. In discharging their duties, managers and members who do not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted may rely upon financial statements of the LLC that were either certified in writing by an independent or certified public accountant or firm of such accountants fairly to reflect the LLC's financial condition, or reported to such manager or member to be correct by the manager, member or officer having charge of the books of accounts of the LLC. Managers and members are also entitled to rely on:
1. One or more officers or employees of the LLC whom the managers and members reasonably believe to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the information, opinions, reports or statements provided;

  3. Discharged his duties with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.
- f. - g. Every member and manager must account to the LLC and hold as trustee for it any improper personal profit derived by that member or manager from any transaction connected with the organization, conduct or winding up of the LLC; use by a member or manager of property of the LLC, including confidential or proprietary information; or other matters entrusted to the person as a result of that person's status as manager or member, unless that person has obtained the consent of:
  - 1. If a manager, more than one half by number of the disinterested managers or more than one half by number of the disinterested members; or
  - 2. If a member, more than one half by number of the disinterested members.
- h. The provisions of this section may not be modified or waived in an Operating Agreement, the Articles of Organization or otherwise; provided, that the Operating Agreement may impose duties on its members and managers that are in addition to, but not in abrogation of, those provided in this section.

7.03. Voting.

- a. Except as provided in the Operating Agreement, the Articles of Organization or this Ordinance and subject to subsection (b), the affirmative vote, approval or consent of more than half by number of the members on a per capita basis, if management of an LLC is vested in the members, or of more than one-half of the managers or other persons vested with management authority of that LLC, if the management of that LLC is vested in such managers or persons, is required to decide any matter connected with that LLC's business.

  - 3. Allow an LLC to accept any additional contribution from an Owner;
  - 4. Allow a partial redemption of an interest in an LLC under §8.03; or
  - 5. Value of contributions of members under §8.01(b).
  - 6. Authorize a manager, member or other person to act on behalf of the LLC in a manner that contravenes an Operating Agreement.
- c. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, if any member is precluded from voting with respect to a given matter, the value of the contribution represented by the interest in the LLC with respect to which the member would otherwise have been entitled to vote shall be excluded from the total contributions made to the LLC for purposes of determining the fifty percent (50%) threshold under §3.14 for that matter.

- d. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement or this section, if all or part of an interest in the LLC is assigned under §10.05, the assigning member shall be considered the owner of the assigned interest for purposes of determining the 50% threshold under §3.14 until the assignee of the interest in the LLC becomes a member under §10.07.

7.04. Indemnification of Managers, Members, Employees and Agents; Insurance.

- a. An LLC may indemnify or, if provided in the Articles of Organization or an Operating Agreement, shall in all cases indemnify a person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to a threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, because that person is or was a manager, member, employee or agent of that LLC or is or was serving at the request of that LLC as a director, officer, trustee, partner, fiduciary, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with such an action, suit or proceeding; provided that no indemnification may be provided for a person with respect to a matter for which that person is finally adjudicated:
  - 1. Not to have acted honestly or in the reasonable belief that that person's action was in or not opposed to the best interests of an LLC or its members or not to have performed his duties with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances or, in the case of a person serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan or trust, in or not opposed to the best interests of that plan or trust or its participants or beneficiaries; or
  - 2. With respect to a criminal action or proceeding, to have had reasonable cause to believe that that person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of an action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order or conviction adverse to that person, or by settlement or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not of itself create a presumption that that person did not act honestly or in the reasonable belief that that person's action was in or not opposed to the best interests of an LLC or its members or, in the case of a person serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan or trust, in or not opposed to the best interests of that plan or trust or its participants or beneficiaries and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that that person's conduct was unlawful.
- b. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (a), an LLC does not have the power to indemnify a person with respect to a claim, issue or matter asserted by or in the right of that LLC for which that person is finally adjudicated to be liable to that LLC unless the Tribal Court determines that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, that person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such amounts as the Tribal Court determines reasonable.
- c. Notwithstanding the provision of subsections (a), (b) or (d) to the contrary, to the extent that a manager, member, employee or agent of an LLC has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of an action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a) or (b), or in defense of a claim, issue or matter referred to in subsection (a) or (b), that LLC shall indemnify that manager, member, employee or agent against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by that manager, member, employee or agent in connection with the action, suit or proceeding. The right to indemnification granted by this subsection may be enforced by a separate action against that LLC if an order for indemnification is not entered by a court in the action, suit or proceeding in which that manager, member, employee or agent was successful on the merits or otherwise.

- d. Any indemnification under subsection (a), unless ordered by the Tribal Court or required by the Articles of Organization or Operating Agreement, may be made by the LLC only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the manager, member, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances and in the best interests of the LLC or otherwise required under the Operating Agreement. If the Articles of Organization vest management in a manager, that determination must be made by the manager or by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of managers who were not parties to that action, suit or proceeding, or if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested managers so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or by a majority-in-interest of the members who are not parties to the action. If the Articles of Organization do not vest management in a manager, the members shall make that determination by majority vote of a quorum consisting of members who were not parties to that action, suit or proceeding. Such a determination once made may not be revoked and upon the making of that determination the manager, member, employee or agent may enforce that indemnification against the LLC by a separate action notwithstanding any attempted or actual subsequent action by the manager(s) or member(s).
- e. Expenses incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be authorized and paid by an LLC in advance of the final disposition of that action, suit or proceeding upon a determination made in accordance with the procedure established in subsection (d) that, based solely on the facts then known to those making the determination and without further investigation, the person seeking indemnification satisfied the standard of conduct prescribed by subsection (a), or if so provided in the Articles of Organization or an Operating Agreement, these expenses must in all cases be authorized and paid by that LLC in advance of the final disposition of that action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by that LLC of:
  - 1. A written undertaking by or on behalf of the manager, member, employee or agent to repay that amount if that person is finally adjudicated:
    - A. Not to have acted honestly or in the reasonable belief that that person's action was in or not opposed to the best interests of an LLC or its members or not to have discharged his or their duties with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances or, in the case of a person serving as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan or trust, in or not opposed to the best interests of such a plan or trust or its participants or beneficiaries;
    - B. With respect to a criminal action or proceeding, to have had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful; or
    - C. With respect to a claim, issue or matter asserted in an action, suit or proceeding brought by or in the right of an LLC, to be liable to that LLC, unless the court in which that action, suit or proceeding was brought permits indemnification in accordance with subsection (c); and

2. A written affirmation by the manager, member, employee or agent that the person has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by an LLC as authorized in this section. The undertaking required by paragraph (1) must be the unlimited general obligation of the person seeking the advance but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.
  - f. The indemnification and entitlement to advances of expenses provided by this section is not exclusive of other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under an Operating Agreement, other agreement, vote of members or otherwise, both as to action in that person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such an office, and continues for a person who has ceased to be a manager, member, employee, agent, trustee, partner or fiduciary and inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of that person. A right to indemnification required by the Articles of Organization or an Operating Agreement may be enforced by a separate action against an LLC if an order for indemnification has not been entered by a court in an action, suit or proceeding for which indemnification is sought.
  - g. An LLC may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a manager, member, employee or agent of that LLC, or is or was serving at the request of that LLC as a director, officer, trustee, partner, fiduciary, employee or agent of a corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against that person and incurred by that person in such a capacity, or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not that LLC would have the power to indemnify that person against such a liability under this section.
  - h. For purposes of this section, references to a "Limited Liability Company" or "LLC" include, in addition to a surviving LLC or new LLC, a participating LLC in a consolidation or merger.
- 7.05. Remedies for Breach of Operating Agreement by Manager. An Operating Agreement may provide that:
- a. A manager or member who fails to perform in accordance with, or to comply with the terms and conditions of, the Operating Agreement is subject to specified penalties or specified consequences; and
  - b. At the time or upon the happening of certain events specified in the Operating Agreement, a manager or member is subject to specified penalties and specified consequences.

8.01. Capital Contributions.

- a. A member's contributions to the capital of an LLC may consist of cash, property, services rendered, or promissory notes or other written obligations to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

- b. The value of a member's contribution shall be determined in the manner provided in the Operating Agreement. If the Operating Agreement does not fix a value to a contribution, the value of a contribution shall be approved, prior to that member's contribution, by a majority-in-interest of the members, shall be properly reflected in the records and information kept by the LLC under § 5.15. The value of contributions so determined shall be binding and conclusive on the LLC and its members.

8.02 *Liability for Contribution.

- a. An obligation of a member to provide cash or property or to perform services as a contribution to an LLC is not enforceable unless specified in a writing signed by the member.
- b. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, a member is obligated to an LLC to perform any enforceable promise to provide cash or property or to perform services, even if the member is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If a member does not provide cash, property, or services as promised, the member is obligated at the option of the LLC to provide cash equal to that portion of the value of the stated contribution that has not been fulfilled.
- c. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, a member's obligation to provide cash or property or to perform services as a contribution to the LLC may be compromised only by the written consent of all of the members.

8.03. *Allocation of Profits and Losses and Distributions. The profits and losses of an LLC shall be allocated among the members in the manner provided in the Operating Agreement. If the Operating Agreement does not otherwise provide, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the value of contributions made by each member to the extent they have been received by the LLC and have not been returned. The value of the contributions made shall be determined as stated in the Articles of Organization, the Operating Agreement or the records of the LLC.

Article 9.      *Ownership and Disposition of Property.

9.01. *Ownership of Limited Liability Company Property.

- a. Real or personal property owned or purchased by an LLC may be held and owned, and conveyance shall be made, in the name of the LLC. A member has no specific interest in the property of an LLC.
- b. Subject to subsection (d), property is presumed owned by an LLC if it is acquired in the name of that LLC.
- c. Subject to subsection (d), property is presumed owned by an LLC if it is purchased with funds of that LLC even if it is acquired in the name of a member or other person.
- d. Property is presumed separate property of one or more members or other persons if it is acquired in the name or names of the member(s) or person(s) without use of funds of an LLC even though the property is used for purposes of the business of that LLC.

9.02. *Transfers of Property.

- a. Except as provided in subsection (e), title to property of an LLC that is held in the name of the LLC may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by a member in the name of that LLC.
- b. Title to property of an LLC that is held in the name of one or more members or managers with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property to them in their capacity as members or managers of that LLC or of the existence of an LLC, even if the name of that LLC is not indicated, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by the person in whose name title is held.
- c. Property transferred under subsections (a) and (b) may be recovered by an LLC if it proves that the act of the person executing the instrument of transfer did not bind the LLC under this Ordinance, unless the property has been transferred by the initial transferee or a person claiming through the initial transferee to a subsequent transferee who gives value without having notice that the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind that LLC.
- d. Title to property of an LLC that is held in the name of one or more persons other than that LLC without an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property to them in their capacity as members or managers of that LLC or of the existence of an LLC may be transferred free of claims of that LLC or the members by the person in whose name title is held to a transferee who gives value without having notice that it is property of that LLC.
- e. If the Articles of Organization provide that management of an LLC is vested in a manager or managers:
  1. Title to property of the LLC that is held in the name of that LLC may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by a manager in the name of that LLC; and
  2. A member, acting solely in the capacity as a member, does not have authority to transfer title to property of an LLC that is held in the name of an LLC.

9.03. Conditions for Non-Liquidating Distributions.

- a. From time to time, the LLC may distribute its property to the members of the LLC upon the basis stipulated in the Operating Agreement if, after distribution is made, the fair value of the assets of the LLC is in excess of all liabilities of the LLC except liabilities to members on account of their contributions.
  1. Except as provided in this Section, a member is entitled to receive distributions from an LLC before the member's dissociation from the LLC and before its dissolution and winding up to the extent and at times or upon the events specified in the Operating Agreement.
  2. Except as provided in this Section, upon the distribution in partial liquidation of a member's interest, the redeeming member is entitled to receive the amount to which the member is entitled under the Operating Agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the fair value of the redeemed interest based on the member's right to share in distributions from the LLC.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, upon an event of dissociation under §10.02 that does not cause dissolution of the LLC, a dissociating member is entitled to receive any distribution to which member is entitled under the Operating Agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the fair market value of the member's interest in the LLC based on the member's rights to share in distributions from the LLC.
- b. Except as provided in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization:
  1. A member, regardless of the nature of that member's contribution, has no right to demand and receive a distribution from an LLC in any form other than cash; and
  2. A member may not be compelled to accept from an LLC a distribution of an asset in kind to the extent that the percentage of that asset distributed to the member exceeds a percentage of that asset that is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from that LLC.
- c. At the time a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of an LLC with respect to the distribution.
- d. A distribution may not be made if after giving effect to the distribution:
  1. The LLC is not able to pay its debts as they become due; and
  2. All liabilities of the LLC, other than liabilities to members on account of their LLC interests and liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of the LLC, exceed the fair value of the assets of the LLC, except that the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited is included in the assets of the LLC only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability.
- e. An LLC may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (d) on either:
  1. Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable under the circumstances; or
  2. A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.
- f. The effect of a distribution under subsection (a) is measured as of:
  1. The date the distribution is authorized if payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization; or
  2. The date payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

- g. An LLC's indebtedness to a member incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is parity with that LLC's indebtedness to its general unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.
- h. If terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is to be made only if, and to the extent that, payment of a distribution to members could then be made under this section, indebtedness of an LLC, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of determinations made under subsection (d).
- i. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.
- j. Distributions of cash or other assets of an LLC must be shared among the members and among classes of members in the manner provided in an Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization. If the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization do not so provide, each member or other person entitled to the interest of a member shall share in any distribution in proportion to their membership interests. A member is entitled to receive distributions described in this section from an LLC to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in an Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or at the times determined by the members or managers.
- k. Upon a withdrawal of a member that does not cause dissolution, a withdrawing member is entitled to receive any distribution to which the member is entitled under the Operating Agreement. If not otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the member is not entitled to receive any distribution.

9.04. Liability upon Wrongful Distribution.

- a. Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance a member or manager who votes for or assents to a distribution in violation of the Operating Agreement, Articles of Organization or §9.03 is personally liable to an LLC for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violation of §9.03, the Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement if it is established that the member or manager did not act in compliance with §9.03.
- b. Each member or manager held liable under subsection (a) for the unlawful distribution is entitled to contribution:
  - 1. From each other member or manager who could be held liable under subsection (a) for the unlawful distribution; and
  - 2. From each member for the amount that member received knowing that the distribution was made in violation of §9.03, the Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement.
- c. An action to recover under this Section may be brought in the Tribal Court; however, a proceeding under this section is barred unless it is commenced within 2 years after the date on which the effect of the distribution is measured under §9.03.

- d. Nothing in this Ordinance serves to waive any aspect of the Tribe's sovereign immunity, and any waiver thereof must be provided explicitly in the LLC's Operating Agreement approved by Tribal Council.

Article 10. Admission of Member; Membership Interests.

10.01. Admission of Member.

- a. Subject to subsection (b), a person may become a member in an LLC:
  - 1. When the person acquires an LLC interest directly from an LLC, upon compliance with the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or, if neither the Operating Agreement nor the Articles of Organization so provide, upon the written consent of all members; and
  - 2. When the person is an assignee of another person's LLC interest, pursuant to §10.05.
- b. A person becomes a member in an LLC organized under this Ordinance on the later of:
  - 1. The date an LLC is formed in accordance with the terms hereof; or
  - 2. The time provided in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or, if no such time is provided in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization, when the member's admission is recorded in the records of an LLC.

10.02. Withdrawal or Dissociation of Member.

- a. A person qualified to be a member under this Ordinance ceases to be a member of an LLC upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
  - 1. The member withdraws by voluntary act from an LLC.
  - 2. The member is removed as a member in accordance with the Operating Agreement or this Ordinance.
  - 3. The member ceases to be a member pursuant to provisions of an Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization.
  - 4. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time when, the member:
    - A. Makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors;
    - B. Files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy;
    - C. Becomes the subject of an order for relief under federal bankruptcy laws or state or Tribal insolvency laws.

5. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization, or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members of the time, 120 days after the commencement of a proceeding against the member seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any law or regulation, the proceeding has not been dismissed, or if within 90 days after the appointment without the member's consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver or liquidator over the member of all or a substantial part of the member's properties, the appointment is not vacated or stayed, or if within 90 days after the expiration of a stay, the appointment is not vacated.
  6. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization, or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time, when a member who is an individual:
    - A. Dies; or
    - B. Is adjudicated incompetent to manage the member's person or estate by a court of competent jurisdiction.
  7. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time, when a member is a trust or is acting as a member because that member is a trustee or a trust, the termination of the trust, but not solely the substitution of a new trustee.
  8. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time, when a member is a separate LLC, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of the separate LLC.
  9. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time, when a member is a corporation, the filing of a certificate of its dissolution or the equivalent for the corporation or the suspension of its charter and the expiration of 90 days after the date of notice to the corporation of suspension without a reinstatement of its charter.
  10. Subject to a contrary provision in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization or written consent of a majority-in-interest of all members at the time, when a member is an estate, the distribution by the fiduciary of the estate's entire interest in an LLC.
- b. The members may provide in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization for other events the occurrence of which result in a person ceasing to be a member of an LLC.
  - c. Unless the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization provide that a member has no power to withdraw by voluntary act from an LLC, the member may do so at any time by giving a 30-day written notice to the other members or such other notice as provided in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization. If the member has the power to withdraw but the withdrawal is a breach of an Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization, or the withdrawal occurs as a result of otherwise wrongful conduct of the member, an LLC may recover from the withdrawing member the reasonable costs of obtaining replacement of the services the withdrawn member was obligated to perform and may offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to that member, in addition to pursuing any remedies provided for in an Operating Agreement or otherwise available under applicable law.

10.03. Statement of Withdrawal. A member who has withdrawn may, or the LLC may, file a statement of withdrawal stating the name of the LLC and that the member has withdrawn from the LLC.

10.04. Nature of Membership Interest. A membership interest in an LLC is personal property.

a. Except as provided in an LLC's organizational documents and, for a Tribally-owned LLC, subject to the prior approval of the Tribal Council:

1. A membership interest is assignable in whole or in part;
2. An assignment entitles the assignee to share in profits and losses, to receive the distribution or distributions and to receive the allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled to the extent assigned;
3. An assignment of a membership interest does not of itself dissolve an LLC or entitle the assignee to participate in the management and affairs of an LLC or to become or exercise any rights of a member;
4. Until the assignee of an LLC interest becomes a member, the assignor continues to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights of a member;
5. Until an assignee of a membership interest becomes a Member, the assignee has no liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment; and
6. The assignor of a membership interest is not released from liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment.

b. An Operating Agreement or an LLC's Articles of Organization may provide that a member's interest in an LLC may be evidenced by a certificate of membership interest issued by an LLC and may also provide for the assignment or transfer of a membership interest represented by such a certificate and make other provisions with respect to the certificates.

c. Unless otherwise provided in an Operating Agreement, the pledge of or granting of a security interest, lien or other encumbrance in or against any or all of the membership interest of a member is not an assignment and does not cause the member to cease to be a member or to cease to have the power to exercise the rights or powers of a member.

10.06. Rights of Judgment Creditor. On application to the Tribal Court by a judgment creditor of a member, the Tribal Court may charge the membership interest of the member (other than the Tribe) with payment of the unsatisfied amount of judgment. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the member's interest in distribution made by the LLC to members and other assigned interest holders in the usual course of business. This section does not deprive any member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to that member's membership interest. In no event shall the Tribe's interest be attachable in abrogation of its sovereign immunity from suit.

10.07. Right of Assignee to Become a Member.

- a. An assignee of a membership interest may become a member if:
  1. The Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization so provide; or
  2. All other Members unanimously consent.
  3. The Tribe, if a member of the LLC, consents, whether in the authorization regarding formation or otherwise.
- b. An assignee who becomes a member has to the extent assigned the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of a member under the Articles of Organization, any Operating Agreement and this Ordinance. An assignee who becomes a member also is liable for any obligations of the assignor to make contributions and to return distributions required hereunder. The assignee is not obligated for liabilities of which the assignee had no knowledge of at the time the assignee became a member and that could not be ascertained from an Operating Agreement or the Articles of Organization.
- c. Except as otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement or Articles of Organization, a member who assigns that member's entire interest in an LLC ceases to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights of a member when an assignee of that member's interest becomes a member with respect to the assigned interest.

10.08. Powers of Estate of a Deceased or Incompetent Individual Member. If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the member to be incompetent to manage the member's person or property, the member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator or other legal representative has all of the rights of an assignee of the member's interest.

10.09. Powers of a Dissolved Business Entity Member. If a member is a corporation, trust, partnership, LLC or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

Article 11. Mergers and Conversions.

11.01. Merger or Consolidation; General.

- a. For purposes of this Article, "other business entity" means any association or legal entity other than an LLC, organized to conduct business, including a corporation, limited partnership, general partnership, limited liability partnership, joint venture, joint stock company and business trust authorized by applicable statutes to merge or consolidate with an LLC.

1. Domestic business entity means a Corporation, incorporated under the laws of the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians; a Domestic LLC, organized under this Ordinance; a Tribally-charted entity of the Tribe, an unincorporated cooperative of the Tribe; a Section 17 Corporation owned by the Tribe; or other Tribally-formed entity, that is party to the merger.
  2. Foreign business entity means a Foreign LLC; a Foreign Limited Partnership, or a Foreign Corporation.
  3. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this Article “LLC” includes a Domestic LLC and a Foreign LLC.
- b. Pursuant to a plan of merger or consolidation that complies with and is approved in accordance with this Article, any one or more LLCs may merge or consolidate with or into one or more LLCs or other business entities, with the LLC or other business entity as the agreement provides being the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity.
  - c. Rights or securities of or interests in an LLC or other business entity that is a party to the merger or consolidation may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, obligations, rights or securities of or interests in the surviving LLC or other business entity.
  - d. Unless otherwise provided in its Operating Agreement, one or more LLCs may merge with or into one or more other Business Entities if the action of merger is a process permitted under the applicable laws of the jurisdiction that governs each such other Business Entity and each such Business Entity approves the plan of merger in accordance with its Organizational Documents.
  - e. Interests or shares in an LLC that is a party to a merger may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, obligations, or interest in the surviving Business Entity.

11.02. Approval of Merger or Consolidation.

- a. Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, one or more domestic LLCs may merge or consolidate with or into one or more domestic LLCs or one or more other business entities with or into one or more LLCs or one or more other business entities formed or organized under the laws of the Tribe or foreign jurisdiction with such domestic LLCs or other business entity as the agreement shall provide being the surviving or resulting domestic LLCs or other business entity. Unless otherwise provided in writing in the Operating Agreement or in the Articles of Organization, an LLC that is a party to a proposed merger or consolidation must approve the merger or consolidation agreement by the consent of a majority-in-interest of the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, by consent of a majority-in-interest of the members of each class or group. If, as a result of the merger or consolidation, one or more members of an LLC would become subject to personal liability for the obligations or liabilities of any other person or entity, approval of the plan of merger or consolidation must require the execution by each such member of a separate written consent to become subject to such personal liability.
- b. Each LLC or other business entity that is a party to a proposed merger or consolidation pursuant to this Article shall approve the merger or consolidation in the manner and by the vote required by the laws applicable to such a business entity and, to the extent allowed under such laws, its governing documents.

- c. Each LLC or other business entity that is a party to the merger or consolidation shall have any rights to abandon the merger or consolidation provided for in the merger or consolidation agreement or the laws applicable to the business entity or in accordance with the governing documents.
- d. Upon approval of a merger, the LLC shall notify its members of the approval and of the effective date of the merger.
- e. After a merger is authorized, and at any time before the certificate of merger or consolidation is filed with the Department, pursuant to §11.04, the planned merger may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further action on the part of the shareholders or other members, in accordance with the procedures set forth in the plan of merger or, if none is set forth, in the manner determined by the governing body of any business entity that is a party to the merger.

11.03. Plan of Merger or Consolidation.

- a. Each constituent LLC or other business entity that is a party to the merger or consolidation shall enter into a written plan of merger or consolidation that must be approved by a majority of the members unless the Operating Agreement otherwise provides.
- b. The plan of merger or consolidation must set forth:

  - 5. Other provisions relating to the proposed merger or consolidation determined necessary or desirable by the Department and/or Commission, if appropriate.

- c. The LLC or other business entity surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation shall deliver to the Department a certificate of merger or consolidation executed by each constituent LLC setting forth:
1. The name and current jurisdiction of each LLC or other business entity that is to merge or consolidate;
  2. That an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved and executed by each LLC or other business entity that is a party to the merger or consolidation;
  3. The name of the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity;
  4. If the surviving or resulting LLC is not organized under the laws of the Tribe, a statement that the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity:
    - A. Agrees to accept service of process by certified mail in a proceeding for enforcement of an obligation of a party to the merger or consolidation that was organized under the laws of the Ordinance, as well as for enforcement of an obligation of the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity arising from the merger or consolidation; and
    - B. Appoints a registered agent for service of process in any such proceeding.
  5. If shareholder approval of any corporation party to the merger or consolidation was not required, a statement to that effect;

    - B. If the shares of any class were entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the written agreement or plan and a statement that the number of votes cast for the agreement or plan by each class was sufficient for approval by that class;

8. That the executed agreement or plan of merger or consolidation is on file at a place of business of the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity and stating the address of such place of business and that a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation will be furnished by the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity, on request and without cost, to a person holding an interest in an LLC or other business entity that is to merge or consolidate;
  9. The date when the merger or consolidation is to take effect, not to exceed 60 days subsequent to the filing date of the certificate of merger or consolidation;
  10. A statement to the effect that the merger or consolidation was effected in compliance with the laws applicable to mergers or consolidations of all parties to the merger or consolidation; and
  11. An agreement that the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity shall continue to comply with all provisions of all laws applicable to mergers or consolidations of all parties to the merger or consolidation, including, without limitation, provisions on payment of amounts to which dissenting shareholders are entitled, if available.
- d. A merger or consolidation takes effect upon the later of the effective date of the filing of the certificate of merger or consolidation or the date set forth in the certificate of merger or consolidation.
  - e. The certificate of merger or consolidation must be executed by an LLC that is a party to the merger or consolidation in the manner provided for in this Ordinance and must be filed with the Department in the manner provided for herein.
  - f. The certificate of merger or consolidation acts as articles of dissolution for an LLC that is not the surviving or resulting business entity in the merger or consolidation.
  - g. A written agreement of merger or consolidation approved in accordance with the terms hereof may effect an amendment to the Operating Agreement or effect the adoption of a new Operating Agreement for an LLC if it is the surviving or resulting LLC in the merger or consolidation. An approved written plan of merger or consolidation may also provide that the Operating Agreement of any constituent LLC to the merger or consolidation, including an LLC formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation, must be the Operating Agreement of the surviving LLC. An amendment to an Operating Agreement or adoption of a new Operating Agreement made pursuant to this subsection is effective at the effective time and date of the merger or consolidation. This subsection may not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a merger or consolidation or of any of the matters referred to in this subsection, by any other means, including that the Operating Agreement of a constituent LLC formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation, must be the Operating Agreement of the surviving or resulting LLC.
- 11.04. Effects of Merger or Consolidation. A merger or consolidation has the following effects:
- a. The LLCs or other business entities that are parties to the merger or consolidation agreement become a single entity, which in the case of a merger is the LLC or other business entity designated in the plan of merger as the survivor, and in the case of a consolidation is the resulting LLC or other business entity provided for in the plan of consolidation.

- b. The separate existence of each party to the merger or consolidation agreement, except for the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity, ceases.
- c. The surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity possesses all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises of each constituent LLC or other business entity and is subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of the parties to the extent that those rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises, restrictions, disabilities and duties are applicable.
- d. All property, real, personal and mixed and all debts due, including promises to make capital contributions and subscriptions for shares or interests, and all other choices in action and all other interests of or belonging to or due to each of the constituent entities vest in the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity without further act or deed.
- e. The title to all real estate and any interest in real estate vested in a constituent LLC or other business entity do not revert and are not in any way impaired by reason of the merger or consolidation.
- f. The surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity is liable for all liabilities and obligations of each constituent LLC or other business entities so merged or consolidated and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against a constituent LLC or other business entity may be prosecuted as if the merger or consolidation had not taken place or the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity may be substituted in the action.
- h. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens on the property of a constituent LLC or other business entity are impaired by the merger or consolidation.
- i. The membership or other interests in an LLC or other business entity that are to be converted or exchanged into interests, cash, obligations or other property under the terms of the merger or consolidation agreement are so converted and the former holders of the membership or other interests are entitled only to the rights provided in the merger or consolidation agreement or the rights otherwise provided by law.

11.05. Right to Withdraw. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, upon receipt of the notice, a member who did not vote in favor of the merger or consolidation may, within twenty (20) days after the date of the notice, voluntarily withdraw from the LLC under §10.02 and receive fair value for the member's LLC interest, subject to all other provisions of this ordinance.

11.06. Conversion.

- a. Unless otherwise provided in its Organizational Documents, a Domestic LLC may convert to another form of business entity if it:
  - 1. Satisfies the requirements under this Ordinance relating to conversions; and

2. If the conversion is permitted under the applicable law of the jurisdiction that governs the organization of the business entity into which the limiting liability company is converting.
  - b. Unless otherwise provided in its organizational documents, a business entity other than a Domestic LLC may convert into an LLC if it:
    1. Satisfies the requirements under this Ordinance relating to conversions; and
    2. If the conversion is permitted under the applicable law of the jurisdiction that governs the business entity.
  - c. The filing requirements of §5.11 apply to conversions under this section.
  - d. Notwithstanding its prior approval, a plan of conversion may be amended before the conversion takes effect if the amendment is approved by the members of the converting LLC or business entity in the same manner as was required for the approval of the original plan of conversion.
- 11.07. Conversion of Domestic LLC into another Business Entity. A Domestic LLC may convert into another business entity if all of the requirements of §11.08 and §11.09 are satisfied.
- 11.08. Plan of Conversion for Domestic LLC into another Business Entity.
- a. Unless subsection (c) applies, the LLC proposing to convert shall adopt a plan of conversion that includes all of the following:
    1. The name of the LLC, the name of the business entity into which the LLC is converting, the type of business entity into which the LLC is converting, identification of the statute that will govern the internal affairs of the surviving business entity, the street address of the surviving business entity, the street address of the LLC if different from the street address of the surviving business entity, and the principal place of business of the surviving business entity.
    2. The terms and conditions of the proposed conversion, including the manner and basis of converting the ownership interest of the LLC into ownership interests or obligations of the surviving business entity, into cash, into other consideration that may include ownership interests or obligations of an entity that is not a party to the conversion, or into a combination of cash and other consideration.
    3. The terms and conditions of the organizational documents that are to govern the surviving business entity.
    4. Any other provisions with respect to the proposed conversion that the LLC considers as necessary or desirable.
  - b. A vote of the members of the LLC is required to adopt a plan of conversion under subsection (a). A unanimous vote of the members entitled to vote is required to approve a plan of conversion unless its organizational documents provide otherwise.

- c. If the LLC has not commenced business, has not issued any ownership interests, has no debts or other liabilities, and has not received any payments, or has returned any payments it has received after deducting any amount disbursed for payment of expenses, for subscriptions for its ownership interests, subsections (a) and (b) do not apply and the members of the LLC, may approve of the conversion of the LLC into another business entity by majority vote. To effect the conversion, a majority of the members must execute and file a certificate of conversion under §8.10.
- 11.09. Filing of Certificate of Conversion for a Domestic LLC. If the plan of conversion is approved under §11.08(b), the LLC shall file any formation documents required to be filed under the laws governing the internal affairs of the surviving business entity, in the manner prescribed by those laws, and shall file a certificate of conversion with the Department. The certificate of conversion shall include all of the following:
